I have been unable to locate the parents of Henry West Sampson, born in Wayne Co., New York. Although I believe him to be the Henry Sampson located in the following census: His obit states he came to Hillsdale, Michigan in October of 1850-although I believe this to be him/no proof. Charles Sampson 28 Amantha Sampson 25 Elisabeth Sampson 16 Catharine Sampson 14 Mary Sampson 9 Charles Sampson 1 Henry Sampson 18 Elisabeth 51. Brother Charles, sisters, brothers child (Charles) and his mother Elizabeth.

I suspect he helped his family relocate from Ashippun, Dodge, Wisconsin to Greenbush, Sheboygan, Wisconsin not long after the census and then he left to join John Warner Sampson and James B. Sampson in Hillsdale, Mich. He references Greenbush, Sheboygan Co., Wisconsin as where he came from in his marriage license.

He was the husband of Mary Ann Smith buried in King Lake Cemetery and Isabelle Gregg buried in Oak Grove Cemetery. The Father of 18 Children. Per family history his son Orley was a twin.

It appears that he remained in Hillsdale the rest of his life after his marriage to Mary Ann Smith. Per their marriage certificate Henry was from Greenbush, Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

He was married to Mary Ann Smith, April 20, 1856, in Hillsdale, Michigan.

He was married to Isabelle (Isabella) Gregg, December 11, 1864 in Hillsdale Michigan.

I have been unable to locate graves for the twin to Orley or find proof of a twins birth..(info that Orley was a twin was written by Orleys sister, Minnie Florence Sampson, my Great Grandmother) nor have I been able to find Henry's first born son with Mary Ann, Wellington Joel Sampson. He does not appear after the 1860 census when he was 10 months old. I placed him in King Lake Cemetery as that is where his mother, and sisters are buried. Dates of birth and death provided by my Great Grandmother and his sister Minnie Florence Sampson and again in a letter to Minnie from another sister. To date have been unable to find burial records on Wellington.

Oddly Henry named his first child with Isabelle after his first wife but am finding that was done very often in that time.

Per census records Henry was first a Carpenter and Joiner, a Retail Grocer, changed professions and returned to Carpentry.
